III. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

The Council cannot act upon items presented during the public participation portion of the agenda. Individual Council members may ask questions of the public or may respond to any criticisms, but the members are prohibited by the open meeting law from discussing or considering the items among themselves until the time that the matter is officially placed on the agenda. The open meeting law does, however, allow the City Council to ask staff to review a matter or ask that it be placed on a future Council agenda.

An individual person has a five-minute time period to speak. If a person has a written presentation that requires more than five minutes to present verbally, he or she should indicate the estimated time required on the sign up sheet. The presiding officer may grant additional time if the agenda for the meeting is not too full. A registered spokesperson for a recognized community organization shall be afforded ten minutes provided other members of the same organization agree before hand to withhold their individual comments on the same subject.
